

Maria C. Kao

Law Practice

Maria Kao uniquely serves as litigation and transactional counsel to community associations and has been serving them since 2009. With a litigation background, Ms. Kao's advice often comes with experience-based risk analysis. She has represented community associations of all sizes and has dealt with a broad spectrum of related real estate and land use issues. Ms. Kao's day-to-day work includes: review and interpretation of governing documents (e.g., voting, maintenance and repair, insurance), contract review and vendor negotiations, disciplinary proceedings and litigation. Clients working with Ms. Kao can expect responsiveness, thoughtfulness, and a reliable gut instinct. The clients that work best with her are those who are direct and looking for legal guidance from an attorney who also has business acumen.

Contact

Direct: (415) 402-2712
mkao@briscoelaw.net

Education

Whittier Law School, JD 2009
University of California, Irvine,
2006

Admissions

State Bar of California

Experience

Ms. Kao has consistently and continuously worked for common interest developments since 2009. She was formerly a partner at Berding & Weil, LLP. Prior to that, she worked as an associate at Feldsott & Lee, APC.

Professional Activities

Ms. Kao is professionally affiliated with the California Association of Community Managers (CACM), Community Associations Institute (CAI).

Publications & Speaking Engagements

“(Not so) Little Fires Everywhere Insuring Your Community,”
CAI Legal Forum, September 2022

“Brave New World”, CCAL Law Seminar, February 2022

“The Dangers of Association Oversharing on Social Media”, The Law Journal, CACM, Fall 2021

Maria C. Kao

“A Deal is a Deal,” OC View, January 2017

“Not Participating in a Board Vote Does Not Mean Nothing Happened”, OC View, March 2015

“Increase Your Assessment Collection Rate”, OC View, May 2012

“Reimbursement Assessments Require a Separate Hearing”, OC View, November 2011